Message from the Senior Mistress

Dear Parents,

As we have approached to the second term, we find our teachers establishing specific routines for the children to follow. This means giving the children a specific place to find and keep materials, a set schedule for classroom instruction, etc. These routines, blended with the teacher's consistent standards, form a smooth running classroom where children have the security of understanding their environment and are reinforced positively for their contributions.

Guide and support your child's learning by ensuring that he/she:

- 1) Attends school daily and arrives on time, ready for the day's learning experience
- 2) Completes all homework assignments given by teachers
- 3) Reads daily to develop a love for reading and to improve literacy skills
- 4) Shares school experiences with you so that you are aware of his/her school life

I would like to congratulate all the students and mothers who participated in different competitions and events.

We thank you for your support and look forward for the same in future.

Ms. Rashmi Malhotra
Senior Mistress

Memo From Your Child

Don't spoil me. I know quite well that I ought not to have all that I ask for. I'm testing you.

Don't be afraid to be firm with me. I prefer it; it makes me feel more secure.

Don't let me form bad habits. I have to rely on you to detect them in the early stages.

Don't make me feel smaller than I really am. It only makes me behave stupidly "big".

Don't correct me in front of people if you can help it. It'll take much more notice if you talk to me privately.

Don't make me feel my mistakes are sins. It upsets my sense of values.

Don't protect me from consequences. I sometimes have to learn the painful way.

Don't be too upset when I say "I hate you." It isn't you I hate, but your power to thwart me.

Don't take too much notice of my small ailments. Sometimes they get me the attention I need.

Don't nag! If you do, I shall have to protect myself by appearing deaf.

Don't forget that I can not explain myself as well as I should like; this is why I'm not always accurate.

Don't make rash promises. Remember that I feel badly let down when promises are broken.

Don't tax my honesty too much. I am easily frightened into telling lies.

Don't be inconsistent. That completely confuses me and makes me lose faith in you.

Don't tell me my fears are silly. They are terribly real to me and you can do much to reassure me if you try to understand.

Don't put me off when I ask questions. If you do, you will find that I stop asking and get my information elsewhere.

Don't ever suggest that you are perfect or infallible. It gives me too great a shock when I discover that you are neither.

Don't ever think it is beneath your dignity to apologize to me. An honest apology makes me feel surprisingly warm toward you.

Don't forget how quickly I am growing up. It must be difficult to keep pace with me, but please, do try.

Don't forget that I love experimenting. I couldn't get along without it so please put up with it.

Don't forget that I can't thrive without lots of understanding love, but I don't need to tell you that do I?
